This piece is made up of sound bytes from around my home and two simple ostinatos. I didn't make any sheet music for it. I was inspired by Steve Reich and Phillip Glass, so this piece uses lots of elements of minimalism - looped sounds from Reich and words over a melodic ostinato from Glass. I recorded sounds from around my home and looped and manipulated them into song. Enjoy!